Start with the balance sheet

High-net-worth planning begins with a complete view of assets, liabilities, ownership structures, tax residence and family objectives.

WHAT TO CONSIDER

- Map liquid assets, property, pensions, private businesses and trusts.
- Identify concentration in a single company, geography, currency or property market.

PLANNING FOCUS

- Separate lifestyle capital, long-term investment capital and legacy capital.
- Create a governance calendar for tax, investment, legal and family reviews.

ELYSIUM PLANNING POINT

The right approach depends on your objectives, time horizon, tax position, residence status and wider financial plan. Review the decision in context rather than in isolation.

Investment structuring

Complexity should have a purpose. A larger portfolio does not automatically need more products.

WHAT TO CONSIDER

- Use strategic asset allocation before selecting managers or structures.
- Evaluate fees across every layer of advice, custody, product and investment management.

PLANNING FOCUS

- Coordinate currency exposure with future spending and liabilities.
- Stress-test liquidity for tax, property purchases, business needs and family commitments.

ELYSIUM PLANNING POINT

The right approach depends on your objectives, time horizon, tax position, residence status and wider financial plan. Review the decision in context rather than in isolation.

Estate and cross-border planning

Residence-based tax rules, the 2027 pension IHT change and cross-border assets can materially affect legacy planning.

WHAT TO CONSIDER

- Review wills, trusts, beneficiary nominations and life cover together.
- Model IHT exposure using current nil-rate bands and relevant reliefs.

PLANNING FOCUS

- If internationally mobile, obtain advice in each relevant jurisdiction.
- Avoid legacy structures that no longer match current law or family objectives.

ELYSIUM PLANNING POINT

The right approach depends on your objectives, time horizon, tax position, residence status and wider financial plan. Review the decision in context rather than in isolation.

Family governance and review

The biggest risks are often organisational rather than investment related.

WHAT TO CONSIDER

- Define who makes financial decisions and who needs to understand the plan.
- Document family values, gifting policy and succession intentions where appropriate.

PLANNING FOCUS

- Maintain a secure asset and adviser register.
- Schedule coordinated tax, investment and estate reviews at least annually.

ELYSIUM PLANNING POINT

The right approach depends on your objectives, time horizon, tax position, residence status and wider financial plan. Review the decision in context rather than in isolation.

Your next-step checklist

Use this as a discussion framework with your adviser; it is not a substitute for personal advice.

BEFORE YOU ACT

- ☐ Map liquid assets, property, pensions, private businesses and trusts.
- ☐ Use strategic asset allocation before selecting managers or structures.
- ☐ Review wills, trusts, beneficiary nominations and life cover together.
- ☐ Define who makes financial decisions and who needs to understand the plan.
- ☐ Confirm relevant tax, legal and regulatory implications before making irreversible changes.
